Lighting Warehouse: The Notion of The Ocean

By SA Décor - June 28, 2019

Glass pendants have been creating quite a stir in the décor arena, and it's easy to understand why, says Melissa Davidson from leading lighting supplier, The Lighting Warehouse: "The on-trend concept of glass makes it an exceptionally versatile material that is able to complement a plethora of various design styles, from cottage to coastal, farmhouse to contemporary. The sleek, elegant lines of glass pendant lights offer a truly timeless sophistication to any décor composition they grace."

Let's have a closer look at the options available from The Lighting Warehouse:

The Travolta Multi bar pendant (code: 24780) retails for R3999,00 from The Lighting Warehouse. This bar pendant has 7 ball pendants of varying sizes attached in clear, amber, smokey, and light blue colours. All the wires are adjustable so you can create your own look by adjusting the lengths of each pendant as you like.

The Adriatic teal / blue coloured, coned-shaped glass pendant (code: 24786) retails for R1099,00 from The Lighting Warehouse.

The Aegean teal / blue , cylinder glass pendant (code: 24781) retails for R1099,00 from The Lighting Warehouse.

The teal / blue Curacao (code: 24784), and the clear Highland (code: 24785) conical glass pendant lights both retail for R1099,00 each from The Lighting Warehouse.

The teal / blue Andaman (code: 24783), and the clear Speyside (code: 24782) oval glass pendant lights both retail for R1099,00 from The Lighting Warehouse.

Melissa says that the incandescent carbon filament, pear-shaped, dimmable globe (code: 21109, Retail price: R99,00) and the LED filament, pear-shaped, dimmable globe (code: 8944, Price: R149,00 are ideal complements to the teal and clear pendants. She recommends the E14 LED Golfball globes (code: 5635, Price: R39,00) for the Travolta Multi bar pendant fixture.
